Travel

By air

There are three major airports within 90 minutes of Oxford: London Heathrow, London Gatwick, and Birmingham. Regular coaches and trains connect the airports with the city. Please see www.theairline.info/ for timetables and fares. For individual car transfers from Heathrow and Oxford, please see www.oxicars.com.

By train

There are regular train services to Oxford from all parts of the country and from continental Europe via the EuroTunnel.

By road

Oxford lies at the centre of a network of major roads and motorways. The M40 gives access to the West and Wales. There are regular bus and coach links, including all-night coaches to and from London. Journey time approximately 1 hour from London and from Birmingham.

Car parking

Some parking is available in the College car park.

For other detailed information about how to get to St Catherine's College rail, coach, car, or on foot, and a map please visit the college website.

Disabled access

Disabled access is available. It would be helpful if you could let Janet Crompton know in advance if you may require any special assistance during your stay in Oxford.
